

TELEVISION OR FILMING ACCREDITATION PROCEDURES

International or National Broadcast Media, wishing to apply for Accreditation for any of the ERC events, should follow the procedures below:

1. Accreditation principles

1. Broadcast Media should apply for accreditation on Event by Events basis only.
2. Television channels, TV production companies or agencies who wish to film on event, are asked to conform to the following principles in order to ensure that media accreditation is authorised and will be given for the right access level.
3. ERC considers the media pass is a working tool and should be used only by authorized media who complete the criteria, and one of the main reasons is that Eurosport Events has contracted with exclusive broadcasters in several territories.
4. Television or filming crews must send their application form to: fia\_erc\_accreditations@eurosport.com and should explain exactly what they want to film and for which use and length.
5. Websites: In case that motorsport or non-motorsports websites wish to be accredited on event and also to broadcast ERC footage online, they have to apply for TV accreditation fia\_erc\_accreditations@eurosport.com
6. On-board cameras: Drivers or teams wishes to install their own on-board cameras on their rally cars should fill in and sign a form that will be distributed onsite during the administrative check
7. Drones: Drones are strictly forbidden for safety reasons.

2. Accreditation Forms

Each applicant must meet all accreditation criteria and apply either online or via email to: fia\_erc\_accreditations@eurosport.com no later 10 days prior to the first day of each ERC event. For information, incomplete applications or submitted after the deadline, will not be processed.

Accreditation Application Form is included as an appendix on the back of this document and should be also uploaded on the events official website.

All authorized accredited broadcast media, will be send an official confirmation letter 5 days prior to each ERC event and with this letter the applicants will be able to receive their passes from each individual event's welcome centre.

If the representative(s) is (are) unable to attend the event, then they will to be notify as soon as possible before the opening of the accreditation centre.

If a change of representative(s) is to be made, the applicants must notify it as soon as possible. All members of accredited TV crews, must be issued with a numbered tabard, clearly identifying them as a working TV crew member. The tabard should display the current ERC logo.

Broadcast Media, who wish to obtain footage from Eurosport Events, please contact: Antonios Argyropoulos - Head of Media Rights Distribution +33669583059 Email: antonios@discovery.com

Important note: No accreditation can be collected without the official confirmation accreditation document
